BC – BUTLER/CARBONARO

DUO COMBINES FOR ALL 28 POINTS, HELP BC REMAIN PERFECT

GOULD INTERCEPTS PAIR, BLOCKS PAT TO SET TONE FOR CRUSADER DEFENSE

September 18 – Oradell, NJ – It seemed no one really expected a 14-13 halftime lead, but that's just where BC found itself at the end of two quarters. The game was 21-19 with the visiting Green Wave going for two (didn't work out for them) before the Crusaders were able to put their first New Jersey opponent of the season to rest and improve to 3-0 on the season.

The game opened as any Crusader fan would hope. BC received the ball and immediately went to work. With Ryan Butler picking up big gains on the ground and successive Steve Angeli completions to Jayden Bellamy (37 yds) and Santino Correa (19 yds) set up Butler TD #1 on the day, a 22-yard overpowering run. Five plays and 81 yards, capped off by Giancarlo Carbonaro's first PAT of the afternoon, and BC led the Green Wave 7-0.

After John Fiore tackled a Delbarton receiver following a completion, USC-bound defensive back Jaden Gould made his first big play of the day, an interception, returning the ball to the Delbarton 37 and putting BC in business once again.

The offense was unable to capitalize, but the defense stopped Delbarton at their own 15. After three-and-out, the wave punted and then received a full dose of Butler, smashing into their defense play after play, moving the chains.

Angeli tossed a couple of quick balls to Christian Carti and Saeed St.Fleur to continue moving the chains, then it was back to Butler. A little sprinkling of a pass to Logan Cox may have served as a distraction to the visitors before Butler powered the ball into the endzone from the five-yard line. The next extra point would prove, in the coming twelve minutes, to be critical. The Green Wave took full advantage of a couple of pass plays for touchdowns, but Jaden Gould blocked the extra point following the first touchdown and that put the visitor in a trailing position through the game.

As the second half began, Delbarton tried to build on the momentum in the air. Notre Dame-bound defensive back Bellamy leapt and got a piece of a Green Wave Pass which was quickly intercepted by sophomore Kaj Sanders who returned the ball to the 30-yard line.

BC went three and out and forced Delbarton to punt after a short possession. This is when things got interesting.

Punt returner Chris Mimmo attempted to field a punt, but muffed it. As he scrambled after the ball, he was running backward toward his own endzone. Delbarton players swarmed and wrapped him up, running into the endzone. The ball was marked, correctly, at the five-yard line and the field position and danger of the play seemed to spark the Crusaders. Saeed St.Fleur ripped off a twenty-six yard run and in four plays, the Crusaders were a midfield. That set up big-play time for Mr. Touchdown. Butler ran 49 yards to the scoreboard and no one was able to catch him. Carbonaro's extra-point was good and it was starting to force decision time for the Delbarton staff.

The Green Wave answered with a long touchdown pass and here came the decision…Do we chase the points now? They chose, "YES." They were wrong. BC snuffed out the attempt and now the Wave was down 2.

There was absolutely no messing around in the ensuing drive. BC struck 10 plays, 80 yards with St. Fleur, Angeli and Butler running the football down Delbarton's throat. Butler finished with his fourth touchdown of the day. As importantly, Carbonaro finished the game 4-for-4 with PATs and BC was up 28-19.

Nine points is obviously a two-score difference and psychologically must feel like having to climb Mt. Everest in just 12 minutes when facing the Crusaders in the fourth quarter. BC moves to 3-0, Delbarton 2-1 on the season.

September 14 – Montvale, NJ – Justin Botta was the man of the hour in the JV's latest victory, a 7-1 decision over St. Joseph Regional in Montvale. Botta netted two goals and two assists (6 points in all) as the Crusaders jumped out to a 5-0 halftime lead in Montvale.

Carter Pontone pitched in two goals of his own while Dan Dictenberg and Jason Lessieu each recorded a goal and an assist. Andrew Lama also scored a goal for BC.

FROSH SOCCER VS SHP

The home team posted six goals against none for the Crusaders who managed only two shots on goal the entire day. (LEFT: Antonio Mamsaang has provided well over 90% of BC's scoring through three games.)

Goalie Nate Johnston turned away twelve shots in the effort.

VARSITY SOCCER: BC 4-BT 0

September 17 – Oradell, NJ – BC improved to 4-0 with a 4-0 decision over Hackensack's Bergen Academies.

The Crusaders opened the scoring in the 36th minute of the contest when Danny Kissil controlled the ball and passed it to the wing to Ken Hoang. The two executed a perfect give-and-go, as Hoang put the ball on Kissil's foot, who broke the stalemate.

Tyler Ferris scored and Owen Fizulich recorded career goal #1, each set up by Nick Schwake. Schwake received a little help from Eddie Payan, who set up the senior forwad for his team-leading 8th goal of the season. Kyle Tencza turned away four shots, on his way to recording his second consecutive shutout.

FROSH SOCCER DEFEATS TECH 2-1

September 17 – Hackensack, NJ – Maximus Lahoud and Patrick Sorrentino provided just enough offense for the Frosh who outlasted the Black Knights 2-1. After a scoreless first half, the visiting Crusaders willed their way to a victory.

BIRDS OF THE WEEK

LITTLE BLUE HERON – SNOWY EGRET

September 5 – Lyndhurst, NJ – I know. I know. Neither of these birds are blue. So why is one called a Little Blue Heron (LBHE)? Actually, the bird on the right will be turning blue in the coming year and some of its under feathers in the tail have actually started showing color. First year LBHE's present as white birds and can be difficult to distinguish from Snowy Egrets (LEFT), which are similar in size. There are a couple of distinct differences between the two, though. Little Blues are "stand and wait" foragers. While in the water, they patiently wait for prey to swim nearby so they can strike with their dagger–like bills. Unlike Egrets, they have duller colored legs and feet. LBHEs have two-colored bills, and their lores (area between bill and eyes) is typically a pinkish color.

Snowy Egrets (SNEG) have a Black Bill which is thinner than the LBHE. The lores between its bill and eyes are bright yellow. You can notice SNEGs using more of a "stir it up" approach. The bird on the left has bright yellow feet that it uses to stir up small fish, frogs and the like as they move quickly around in the water.

Our Father

Our Father, Who art in Heaven
Hallowed be Thy Name
Thy Kingdom Come.
Thy will be done
On Earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation.
But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace
The Lord is with You
Blessed are you among women
And blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God
Pray for us sinners
Now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen

Act of Contrition

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good,
I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things.
I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance,
to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.

Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can, and Wisdom to know the difference. Amen

I Confess to You

I confess to almighty God, and to you,
my brothers and sisters,
that I have sinned through my own fault,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do;
and I ask blessed Mary, ever virgin,
all the angels and saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Jesus Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God,
have mercy on me, a sinner.

Blessed Edmund Rice Prayer

O God we thank you for the life of Blessed Edmund Rice.
He opened his heart to Christ present in those oppressed by poverty and injustice.
May we follow his example of faith and generosity.
Grant us the courage and compassion of Blessed Edmund as we seek to live lives
of love and service. Amen.

Grace Before Meals

Bless us, O Lord, and these, thy gifts
Which we are about to receive from thy bounty, through Christ, Our Lord. Amen

The Golden Rule

Love one another as I have loved you.

St. Patrick's Breastplate (shortened)

Christ with me. Christ before me. Christ behind me.
Christ in me. Christ beneath me. Christ above me.
Christ on my right. Christ on my left. Christ when I lie down.
Christ when I sit down. Christ when I arise.
Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me.
Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me.
Christ in every eye that sees me.
Christ in every ear that hears me.

Prayer of St Francis

Lord make me an instrument of Your peace
Where there is hatred let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
Where there is sadness joy.
O Divine master grant that I may
Not so much seek to be consoled as to console
To be understood, as to understand.
To be loved. as to love
For it's in giving that we receive
And it's in pardoning that we are pardoned
And it's in dying that we are born...
To eternal life.
